Upon arrival, the officers contacted a male at the front of 15 Jacklyn Circle. The male turned toward the officers and walked to them. As the male walked, officers discovered he had a butcher knife in his right hand. Officers drew their firearms and provided verbal commands to drop the knife. However, the male was undeterred and advanced upon the officers at a quick pace. Officers continued to provide verbal commands to the male, who sprinted directly at one of the officers.
